DETAILED ACTION

Specification

This application does not contain an abstract of the disclosure as required by 37 CFR 1.72(b). An abstract on a separate sheet is required.

The following guidelines illustrate the preferred layout and content for patent applications. These guidelines are suggested for the applicant's use.

Arrangement of the Specification

The following order or arrangement is preferred in framing the specification and, except for the reference to the drawings, each of the lettered items should appear in upper case, without underling or bold type, as section headings. If no text follows the section heading, the phrase "Not Applicable" should follow the section heading:

- (a) Title of the Invention.
- (b) Cross-Reference to Related Applications.
- (c) Statement Regarding Federally Sponsored Research or Development.
- (d) Reference to a "Sequence Listing," a table, or a computer program listing appendix submitted on compact disc (see 37 CFR 1.52(e)(5)).
- (e) Background of the Invention.
 - 1. Field of the Invention.
 - 2. Description of the Related Art including information disclosed under 37 CFR 1.97 and 1.98.
- (f) Brief Summary of the Invention.
- (g) Brief Description of the Several Views of the Drawing(s).
- (h) Detailed Description of the Invention.
- (i) Claim or Claims (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (j) Abstract of the Disclosure (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (k) Drawings.
- (l) Sequence Listing, if on paper (see 37 CFR 1.821-1.825).

The specification is objected to as failing to provide proper antecedent basis for the claimed subject matter. See 37 CFR 1.75(d)(1) and MPEP § 608.01(o). Correction of the following is required: There is no teaching in the specification of either a connection means or a middle connection means comprising language pertaining to a through opening provided with a membrane, as stated in claims 2 and 11 respectively. With regard to Claim 7, wherein Applicant claims a transferring device in which the upper part of the body is provided with a weakened zone, there is no teaching and/or language in the specification pertaining to a weakened zone.

Claim Objections

Claim 4 is objected to because of the following informalities: It is unclear to Examiner as to what word(s) precedes the word --adaptation--. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim 5 is objected to because of the following informalities: It is unclear to Examiner as to the meaning of the claim language that follows --unit--. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The claims are generally narrative and indefinite, failing to conform with current U.S. practice. They appear to be a literal translation into English from a foreign document and are replete with grammatical and idiomatic errors.

Claims 9-12 recite the limitation "said middle connection unit" in lines 15, 19, 23, and 27. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 4 recites the limitation "the substrate" in line 25. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Regarding claims 2, 3, and 8, the word "means" is preceded by the word(s) "connection" in an attempt to use a "means" clause to recite a claim element as a means for performing a specified function. However, since no function is specified by the word(s) preceding "means," it is impossible to determine the equivalents of the element, as required by 35 U.S.C. 112, sixth paragraph. See Ex parte Klumb, 159 USPQ 694 (Bd. App. 1967).

Regarding claims 10, 11, and 12, the word "means" is preceded by the word(s) "middle connection" in an attempt to use a "means" clause to recite a claim element as a means for performing a specified function. However, since no function is specified by the word(s) preceding "means," it is impossible to determine the equivalents of the element, as required by 35 U.S.C. 112, sixth paragraph. See Ex parte Klumb, 159 USPQ 694 (Bd. App. 1967).

Claims 1-12 are rejected as failing to define the invention in the manner required by 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph.

The claim(s) are narrative in form and replete with indefinite and functional or operational language. The structure which goes to make up the device must be clearly and positively specified. The structure must be organized and correlated in such a manner as to present a complete operative device. The claim(s) must be in one sentence form only. Note the format of the claims in the patent(s) cited.

The term "weakened zone" in claim 7 is a relative term which renders the claim indefinite. The term "weakened zone" is not defined by the claim, the specification does not provide a standard for ascertaining the requisite degree, and one of ordinary skill in the art would not be reasonably apprised of the scope of the invention.

Claim 1 provides for the use of a connection means, but, since the claim does not set forth any steps involved in the method/process, it is unclear what method/process applicant is intending to encompass. A claim is indefinite where it merely recites a use without any active, positive steps delimiting how this use is actually practiced.

Claim 3 provides for the use of a transferring device, but, since the claim does not set forth any steps involved in the method/process, it is unclear what method/process applicant is intending to encompass. A claim is indefinite where it merely recites a use without any active, positive steps delimiting how this use is actually practiced.

Claim 9 provides for the use of a middle connection, but, since the claim does not set forth any steps involved in the method/process, it is unclear what method/process applicant is intending to encompass. A claim is indefinite where it merely recites a use without any active, positive steps delimiting how this use is actually practiced.

Claim 10 provides for the use of contact metal sheets, but, since the claim does not set forth any steps involved in the method/process, it is unclear what method/process applicant is intending to encompass. A claim is indefinite where it merely recites a use without any active, positive steps delimiting how this use is actually practiced.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Ray (US 4,328,813). Ray discloses a connection means intended to be placed below the outer bone surface, connected to a bone anchored percutaneous transferring device for transferring electrical information/energy to and/or from an implanted unit or for the administration of a drug or evacuation or airing of internal cavities, said connection means releasably connected to said transferring device by means of tightening surfaces and connecting surfaces. Ray further teaches a transferring device, comprising a body part being introducible into a bone, a part being present above the bone surface containing a number of radial arms, which are bendable and turnable, arranged to be fastened to the bone. In addition to all of the above, Ray also teaches of a middle connection means for introduction into a transferring device (See Figure 4).

Examiner wants to inform Applicant that the claim language was extremely confusing and difficult to discern. In particular, Examiner does not comprehend what Applicant is claiming in each claim, largely due to the fact that it is unclear as to what the preamble is in each claim. In spite of the confusing sentence structures, grammar, and wording in the claim language, the Examiner best interpreted the claims to be rejected by Ray (US 4328813).
